

* Y-axis shows replacement rate groups. X-axis reflects the share of that group in poverty.
 Poverty defined relative to half the Median Income of the employed population. Experiment asks what proportion of households fall into this measure of poverty after job loss.
 Housing costs reflect the full gross rent or mortgage paid. Other housing expenses are excluded.
Sources: ABS; e61