

A. Households in poverty after job loss

B. Replacement Rates, by Poverty Status

* Poverty defined by the Henderson Poverty Line, at a household level. Experiment is how many households would be in poverty if one member of the household lost their job. Therefore, each partnered household where both members are working are included twice here; once for each person losing their job. Dashed lines on panel B, represent the median for each category.

Sources: ABS; e61