

Average Replacement rates by private resources

Weeks of Liquid Assets

Weekly household income from other sources

Liquid assets represent the number of weeks a household could fully replace lost work income using liquid assets. Other private household income includes partner earnings and non-wage income. Only households with non-negative income from other sources are included.